

INTRODUCTION TO POSITIVE BEHAVIOR SUPPORT

Instructed by
Joe Hutchings

Joe Hutchings is a dynamic and engaging speaker who has lectured and taught throughout Washington State for the past decade. Those who have attended previous sessions have found them entertaining and valuable.

Mr. Hutchings is certified as an Adult Training Specialist, whose workshop on Positive Behavior Support has become the standard for dozens of programs throughout Washington State. Mr. Hutchings has over a quarter-century of experience in supporting those with special needs in schools, sheltered workshops, supported employment and residential services.

- ❖ This is a six- hour introductory workshop for Adult Family Home Providers. Licensed providers, resident managers and caregivers, including adult family home respite providers, individual providers, may attend the training to receive the continuing education credits.
- ❖ This session includes an introduction to functional assessments and behavior support planning.

WORKSHOP OUTLINE

- Positive Behavior Support defined
- PBS Values, technology and Systems
- Quality of Life components
- Defining “problem” behavior
- Functional Assessment of behavior
- Building Behavior Support plans

DATE: September 18, 2006, Monday

TIME: 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

LOCATION: 8517 East Trent
Spokane Valley, WA 99212

There is a door code to enter into a lobby. This code will get you in to the training room. It is 9052.

There is no charge to attend this training. Lunch will be on your own. Questions?
Call Renee Ervin, at 509-329-2919.
Toll Free 1-800-462-0624.

Please register by September 14, 2006.

If Special accommodations are needed, please contact Renee Ervin by September 4, 2006.

